CALL FOR APPLICATIONS – ERASMUS+ KA171 COMMO IX, X & XI | TEACHING STAFF MOBILITY HOST UNIVERSITY: UNIVERSITY OF TERAMO (ITALY)

Within the framework of the COMMO consortium (Cooperation in the Mediterranean through Mobility of Students and Staff), coordinated by UNIMED, the Erasmus+ KA171 programme offers eligible academic staff from partner universities the opportunity to undertake a teaching mobility in Italy. This call is addressed to teaching staff of the Institut Agronomique et Vétérinaire Hassan II (IAV Hassan II) and concerns mobility to the University of Teramo (Università degli Studi di Teramo), Italy.

1. Mobility opportunity

- Mobility type: Staff Mobility for Teaching (STA).
- Host university: University of Teramo (Università degli Studi di Teramo), Italy.
- Mobility duration: 5 days of teaching activities plus 2 travel days (round trip).
- Eligible academic disciplines: Please refer to the document annexed to this call for applications for the list of disciplines concerned by the mobility opportunity at the University of Teramo.

2. Financial support

- Individual support: EUR 190 per day, according to the COMMO call.
- Travel contribution: determined by the distance band between the sending and host institutions.

Check the applicable distance band using the Erasmus+ Distance Calculator

The teaching mobility may take place once selection has been confirmed and the dates have been agreed with the University of Teramo.

3. Eligibility and application requirements

Applicants must be members of the teaching staff currently employed by IAV Hassan II and must submit the following documents:
